Peter Eugene Zoetemelk

Pete was born on October 12, 1961 in Los Angeles, California. He was named after his Dad (Pete) and Grandfather (Eugene). His ancestry is Dutch and Italian. Pete was in the Army and served in Germany as well as all over Europe. He traveled to Jamaica which he loved. He loved to party on the beaches there! Pete grew up in Orange County, California and had 1 sister and 2 brothers. His favorite subject in school was history. He and his friends liked to surf and then hang out on the pier and drink beer. He worked for an oil refinery but always wanted to be a cop. Pete has 2 children, 1 boy and 1 girl. Pete loves to party!!

A Lot of Lattes

Along with falling leaves and sweater weather, another sign of fall is the pumpkin spice latte. Starbucks, the coffee giant that created the popular coffee drink, sells about 20 million cups of the seasonal brew each year.

The Fall Classic

Each October, the World Series crowns the best team in Major League Baseball. Here's a roster of some milestone moments for the Fall Classic.

Year	Milestone
1903	The first World Series is played. The Boston Americans defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates.
1910	A baseball with a cork center, rather than rubber, is used for the first time.
1922	The New York Giants are the first champs to receive World Series rings.
1956	New York Yankee Don Larsen pitches the only perfect game in Series history.
1967	The first Commissioner's Trophy is awarded to the winning team, the St. Louis Cardinals.
1987	Minneapolis' Metrodome hosts the first World Series games played indoors.
1992	The Toronto Blue Jays are the first team from outside the U.S. to win the Series.
2003	MLB awards home-field advantage to the winner of the All-Star Game.
2016	Ending the longest title drought in pro sports, the Chicago Cubs win the Series after 108 years.
